

Draft proposal Terms of Reference for Working Group on fundamental values for the working period 2021-2024

Name of the Task Working Group on fundamental values
Contact persons/co-chairs Tbc
Composition Tbc, A balance between members representing countries and consultative members should be aimed for. Some members may represent organisations with relevant activities that are not members or consultative members of the EHEA . In addition, the WG may draw on ad hoc contributions from recognised experts in the field. A representative of the working group on Monitoring should be a member of the working group, preferably one of the co-chairs of WG1, to establish a link between the work done in the two groups.
Purpose and/or outcome To develop a comprehensive framework to further the monitoring and implementation of the fundamental values of the EHEA in the higher education systems of its members. The system should foster self-reflection, constructive dialogue and peer-learning, while also making it possible to assess the degree to which these fundamental values are honoured and implemented in the EHEA
Reference to the Rome Communiqué (Current version) We reaffirm our commitment to promoting and protecting the fundamental values in the entire EHEA through intensified political dialogue and cooperation as an indispensable foundation for quality learning, teaching and research as well as of democratic societies. We commit to upholding institutional autonomy, academic freedom and integrity, participation of students and staff in higher education governance, and public responsibility for and of higher education. We ask the BFUG to develop a framework for the enhancement of the fundamental values of the EHEA that will foster self-reflection, constructive dialogue and peer-learning across national authorities, HE institutions and organisations, while also making it possible to assess the degree to which these are honoured and implemented in our systems. In the spirit of Magna Charta Universitatum, we adopt the definition of academic freedom as freedom of academic staff and students to engage in research, teaching, learning and communication in society without fear of reprisal (Annex 1).
Specific tasks <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ To develop indicators on de jure and de facto implementation of academic freedom and integrity based on the definition of academic freedom adopted by the ministers in the Rome communiqué. ➤ On the basis of consultation with academic experts and relevant stakeholder organisations, to consider how the additional fundamental values defined in the Paris and Rome communiqués - institutional autonomy, participation of students and staff in higher education governance, and public responsibility for and of higher education - can be defined, understood and implemented in the EHEA.

- To continue to develop and trial a comprehensive, effective and evidence-based monitoring framework for future reporting on the implementation of the fundamental values in the EHEA through the Bologna Process Implementation Report, a system that takes into account both the de jure and the de facto aspects of the fundamental values of the EHEA.
- To liaise with the working group on Monitoring to ensure that the collection of data related to de jure monitoring of the fundamental values takes place, and that this data is reported in time for the 2024 Bologna Process Implementation Report.
- To develop options for the de facto monitoring of fundamental values, including different options for types of data to be explored and methods for collecting and combining data.
- To recommend indicators of fundamental values, as well as the evidence required to fill them, and the source for such evidence.
- In cooperation with the BFUG, take the initiative to a policy dialogue and peer learning activities in the areas concerned, with all relevant higher education policy makers, institutions and stakeholders.

Reporting

Regular progress report will be given to the BFUG. A final report with recommendations will be presented to the BFUG and to the ministerial meeting in 2024. Minutes of working group meetings will be made available by the Bologna Secretariat.
