

International Higher Education

Our new strategic framework

Dr John Law
Head of UK Education Co-ordination

Advisory Group on EHEA International cooperation

Woburn House 18/5/2016

Making a lasting difference to the UK's security, prosperity and influence

Promoting a
'friendly knowledge and understanding' between the people of the UK
and people worldwide

Making a positive contribution to all the countries we work with

How we work

- Independent from government
- We work at a policy level to understand what the UK education policy priorities are,
- We work in partnership with government to design and deliver programmes
- We manage contracts e.g. Erasmus+ or overseas contracts for DfID /EU

Our cultural relations approach – the ‘how’

Our work and aims

Higher Education

Increased global partnership and networks between universities, students, practitioners and higher education leaders

Our cultural relations approach – the ‘what’

The 'Mixed Economy' model for education and culture is a real UK strength, in partnership with UK Governments and great commercial brands:

UK Region engagement in support of international agendas

Building trust and understanding through international partnerships and exchange

OUR UKR WORK

Operating UK wide with partners, stakeholders and networks to understand their international agendas, to create the best match with the demand the British Council sees from around the world.
